

Speaking of mass - product - methods, Hope's population is tending around with a facinated air as the paving contractor's crew rolls out a new surface for the downtown streets at the rate of several blocks a day. The right kind of machinery and skilled help are wrapping up the whole job in a few days, with a minimum of inconvenience to storekeepers and shoppers.

Following our article last week on the increasing use of municipal and state credit to build new factories in the South for industries moving out of the North Roy Bosson gave an interesting analysis of a proposed constitutional amendment here in Arkansas, in last Sunday's Arkansas Democrat.

Mr. Bosson wrote that the measure, which proposes to permit cities to levy a tax up to 1 per cent of their assessed valuation for purchasing and developing industrial sites, now faces opposition from some of the very people who promoted it through the 1951 legislature.

No. 1 among the opposition factors is the fear of established industry throughout the state that this trend will put tax-supported plants in competition with them. North Carolina's textile business is fighting the trend fiercely, Mr. Bosson reports, because the publicly-financed factories are able to shade cloth prices against older firms.

But equally important is the long-range objection - that the importing of industry under the protection of tax-supported capital would play havoc with a community's whole tax structure.

For instance, as the Democrat's writer points out, most of these new industries rent the facilities built at public expense, and therefore are able to deduct the whole rent figure as expense - without having paid any property taxes whatever. And the city escapes any taxes, either local or federal, because of its status as a government.

The people haven't yet made up their mind about this proposed constitutional amendment - but it will be discussed from now on.

Captives Turn Tables in Brazil Jungle

Belem, Brazil, May 20 (AP) - The captives reportedly have turned captor today in the latest episode of Brazil's jungle rescue mixup. A Brazilian major radioed he had foiled a rival search group which held him and an American aviation official hostage at the scene of last month's crash of a Pan American strato-cruiser.

This cryptic message was received last night from Maj. Miranda Correa as three planes with 38 Brazilian parachutists were sent from Rio de Janeiro to rescue him and Scott A. Magnus of Miami, Fla., U. S. Civil Aeronautics Authority safety adviser.

The pair, members of an official Brazilian-American expedition to the crash scene, had been reported held by some 35 Brazilians, Indian guides and newsmen as hostages to ensure their own safe evacuation by airlift. The latter were of an unofficial group sent to the crash scene by a Brazilian politician as a private gesture.

Bell Increases 'Phone Rate, Hearing Pends

New Rate Brings $1.9 Million More Yearly

Little Rock, May 20, (AP) - Southwestern Bell Telephone Company today filed a $500,000 indemnity bond allowing it to place in effect immediately a new rate increase.

A schedule of new rates was filed April 21 when the company asked the Arkansas Public Service Commission for an increase.

The new rate schedule is designed to produce about 1.9 million dollars a year more than a $3,177,000 increase recently authorized by the Arkansas Supreme Court in a previous rate case.

A spokesman for Southwestern Bell said the new rates would average 25 to 50 cents a month above the rates now being charged.

Present rates are higher than those authorized by the Supreme Court and have been collected by the company under a bond filed in 1950.

However, if the commission and the courts finally approve the rates proposed by Southwestern Bell in its latest application the amount of increase will continue.

Refunds will be made to subscribers in the previous rate increase but are being held up pending approval of a schedule which the company has filed.

Immediately after Southwestern Bell filed its new bond, which will guarantee subscribers refund if the rates are found to be excessive, the cities of Little Rock and Ft. Smith filed a motion for cancellation of the surety.

Attorneys for the two cities contended that a section of Arkansas law authorizing such bond is unconstitutional.

The Public Service Commission did not act immediately on the cancellation motion.

Suit Against Hope Dealer Ready for Jury

Texarkana - A $15,000 action brought by the Mossler Acceptance company of Houston against Beverly Johnson, Hope, Ark., will go to the jury in federal court Tuesday.

The action is based on Johnson's repossession of three Cadillacs, a Chevrolet and a pickup truck from a man who purchased the cars and later gave the Mossler firm a mortgage on the vehicles.

Johnson's attorneys contend he repossessed the cars from the man, H. T. Hermanson, a car dealer, in Tyler, unaware of the Mossler interests.

The plaintiff's attorneys contend that Johnson reclaimed the five vehicles after the checks issued by Hermanson were returned marked "insufficient funds."

Federal Judge Harry J. Lemley will charge the jury on the case which will be argued before submission. This is the first civil case being tried before a jury in this term of court.

Panty Raids Worry Police and the Girls

By The Associated Press

The college boy craze to invade women's dormitories for panty raids anew on campuses from Vermont to Minnesota last night. Harassed police were caught between raiders and the beleaguered girls in the dormitories.

Similar collegiate outbreaks have occurred at other schools in the nation. Apparently, some persons believe, the spring revolts represent the students' way of letting off steam before final examinations.

Here are last night's developments in siltken sortings:

At Evanston, Ill., some 200 Northwestern University women serenaded in front of the men's dormitories. The boys applauded the girls, and then 1,000 of them paid a "return visit" to the women's houses.

Singing and cheering, the male students snatched lingerie in five dormitories. But 30 women at a sixth house repulsed the invasion with buckets of water. Police seized nine students but released them after a lecture.

At Columbia, Mo., 3,000 University of Missouri men students assaulted sororities on their own campus and dormitories at Stephens College and Christian College, both women's schools.

Acting Police Chief J. L. Parks said damage might run into thousands of dollars at the three schools. He said he obtained permission to call out the National Guard but that the youths retired after he alerted the Columbia unit. The forays lasted four hours. No serious injuries were reported.

At Minneapolis, some 500 University of Minnesota men students raided three women's dormitories but the raid netted only four bras, Continued on Page Two

Bawling Out Hired Hands Is Becoming a Lost Art in the American Business World

By HAL BOYLE

New York, May 20 (AP) - The art of bawling out the hired hands is becoming a lost art in the American business world.

In the old days when a boss saw something he didn't like, he'd let out a yell and dress the culprit down on the spot - in burning language more memorable than grammatical.

But today most bosses seem to have lost the gift of tongue-lashing. They have found it cheaper, by and large, to hire a psychiatrist to find out what is the matter with a derelict employee than it is to bawl the fellow out themselves and end up explaining it all to the U. S. Supreme Court.

So many employees know their rights now that an employer is hesitant about pointing out their wrongs.

Therefore, it came as something of a surprise to me to get the following letter:

"Dear Sir:

"I have a problem. My boss bawled me out last week and I have a feeling he's going to bawl me out again this week.

"I would quit and get me another job except it's such a nice place to work. The management even puts gin in the office water cooler. What can I do? It makes me nervous when the boss bawls me out.

"Signed A Terrified Young Man."

Well, Dear Terrified, your problem was so unusual that I took it up with all the oldtimers I know who can still remember being bawled out by their boss there are only a few of them left. Here is the summary of their advice:

Build up the drama of the situation. When the summons comes to go see the boss, walk into his office with a look of utter happiness.

Truman Alerts Nation for Renewal of Korean War on a Large Scale

Communist War Prisoner Riots Spread to Other Korea Camps, One Dead, 85 Hurt

Pusan, Korea, May 20 (AP) - Communist war prisoner rioting spread to a Pusan camp today and flared in two new but minor revolts at violence-ridden Koje Island Camp No. 1.

One Red POW was killed and 85 were injured at Pusan.

One American guard suffered a minor injury in the 2 1/2 hour battle of clubs and fists in Pusan Camp No. 10. No shots were fired by the combat-wise United Nations guards, although they were armed.

On Koje, it was disclosed two mild revolts were settled without incident by the new camp commander, Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner, during the first four days of his command.

These occurred while high-ranking officers of Gen. Mark Clark's Far East command in Tokyo studied reports on February-March Koje riots in which 90 Red male POWs and one American soldier were killed.

North Little Rock, May 20 (AP) - Pardoned Murderer Joe Carson was arrested here today. He was charged with assault with a deadly weapon and carrying a concealed weapon.

Additional Officers Fired in New York

New York, May 20 (AP) - Police Commissioner George P. Monaghan has fired two more policemen in new phases of the city's fight against corruption.

A third officer, named as a grafter by jailed bookie Harry Gross, has put in for retirement. Sgt. Michael Hannon, 35, was "dropped from the roll" yesterday. He was sought in vain for a week as a witness in the recent departmental trial of five policemen. The quietest was found guilty last week of shaming part of the million dollars a year graft to protect Gross' reputed 20-million-a-year bookie operations.

Warns Congress of Cuts in Foreign Aid

West Point, N. Y., May 20 (UP) - President Truman today alerted the nation for possible renewal of large-scale warfare in Korea.

Speaking at ceremonies marking the 150th anniversary of the U. S. Military Academy here, he said he is still hopeful of concluding "a just and honorable armistice" in the Far East. But he added:

"We must also be alert, and ready to meet treachery or a renewal of aggression if that should come."

Drawing up a balance sheet on the general world situation, Mr. Truman said it remains "difficult and dangerous in the extreme" and "no one should assume that the possibility of world war has become remote."

But he said the United States has tripled its military production in the past year and its allies are rolling forward rapidly with their rearmament programs, so "I believe we are well on the way to preserving our freedom without paying the frightful cost of world war."

He warned Congress anew that any "substantial" cuts in big defense and foreign aid spending requests will have "extremely serious effects." Senate and House committees have trimmed $1,000,000,000 from his $7,000,000,000 foreign aid request, while the House has voted a cut of $4,700,000,000 in the $50,000,000,000 defense budget.

To Check on Payments for Highway Maps

Little Rock, May 20 (AP) - State Auditor J. Oscar Humphrey said he will check the voucher authorizing payment for new highway construction maps "for anything which may be protested by taxpayers or state officials."

The map shows roads built, contracted for and programmed during the period Jan. 1, 1949, to Aug. 30, 1952. State Printing Co. Bryant Wilder said the 75,000 color lithographed maps would cost the state $5,094.14.

Humphrey also said the payment voucher would be examined "irregularly" and an attorney general's opinion might be sought on its validity as a state obligation.

Food Prices

Canned tuna and salmon would be exempted.

This does not mean the retail ceilings of 11 canned goods will be topped, OPR said. Officials noted that some prices are already about as high as the public will pay.

OPR officials said the higher margins for wholesalers are subject to review when the agency completes a national survey of profit margins and earnings by both wholesalers and retailers.

Another OPR order effective today suspends price controls at the manufacturing level on raw cotton and almost all textiles, but this is not expected to have any marked effect on consumer prices. All items covered, including those made of wool, cotton and synthetic fibers, have been selling far below ceilings.

Price Director Ellis Arnall said the ceilings were removed in line with OPR policy to relax controls when a product begins selling markedly under ceiling prices and there is no indication they will rise back to ceilings.

The OPR said the order left the door open for reimposing controls if prices rise sharply. Arnall said his office would watch the market closely.

Acheson Being Smeared Says State Dept.

Washington, May 20 (AP)—The State Department says Secretary Acheson is being smeared with big lie techniques. "A synthesis of half-truths, statements out of context, misrepresentations, and total falsehoods."

That was how Assistant Secretary Howard H. Sargent described a series of published criticisms of Acheson he said are being distributed widely.

In answer to a request by Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) for comment, Sargent replied in a letter by pointing to 24 allegations he said were made against Acheson in an article by Felix W. Winter in the American Mercury entitled, "Freedom's Case against Dean Acheson."

Sargent said a private organization, which he did not name, "has taken upon itself to make a wide distribution of this article in reprint form."

The points covered in the 14,000 word statement included:

1. That an "Acheson clique" got rid of former Undersecretary of State Joseph Grew after World War II because Grew insisted on vigorous prosecution of career diplomat John Stewart Service. Sargent quoted Grew as saying he quit voluntarily and said Service was reinstated by James F. Byrnes, when Byrnes was secretary of state.

Service was fired recently when an official board found there was reasonable doubt of his loyalty.

2. That Acheson at a meeting with a group of lecturers on Jan. 3, 1940, said: "After all, what's the difference between Russia and America?" The reply said Winter's report was unsubstantiated by recollections of 12 other people who attended the meeting.

3. That Acheson as a lawyer was a paid advocate for Soviet Russia. Sargent called this "utterly false and preposterous."

Daley Called Liar in Brink's Robbery Real

Boston, May 20 (AP)—Deputy Police Supt. James F. Daley today branded as a "liar and faker" ex-convict Alfred A. Gagnon, who said he was one of the planners of the fabulous $1,210,000 Brink's robbery.

Gagnon, of Pawtucket, R. I., named himself, Carlton M. O'Brien, of Providence, and Joseph F. McGinnis, former convict and Boston night club owner, as the planners of the nation's biggest cash haul.

He is held in Rhode Island State Prison awaiting trial on a charge of attempted robbery of a Providence diamond merchant.

O'Brien, 40, was slain in gangland fashion Saturday morning in front of his home. Two shotgun blasts snuffed out his life.

Daley made the accusation in an angry answer to charges from Rhode Island Atty. Gen. William W. Powers that Boston police, C. Orr and Agga Mae Overton, showed a lack of interest in information they had obtained indi-

Payton Girl Wins Divorce From Tone

Los Angeles, May 20 (AP)—The celebrated Hollywood triangle of Franchot Tone, Barbara Payton and Tom Neal has been reduced to a twosome.

Tone won a divorce yesterday from the blonde Miss Payton on testimony that she told him, "I want to be free to move where and when I want to."

After the trial her attorney said she's planning to do some moving—in the direction of Europe, and accompanied by Neal.

The two have separate movie deals cooking on the continent, the attorney said.

Campaign Is on to Unseat FBI's Hoover

By LYLE C. WILSON

Washington, May 20 (UP)—A whispering campaign which never dies, an undercover operation which never rests, is directed at booting Director J. Edgar Hoover out of the FBI.

The ordinary run of yeggs and hoodlums probably would be in favor of ousting Hoover. He makes things tough for them. But they have nothing to do with the campaign to get him out of office and to cut the FBI down to the size and scope of operation desired by its real enemies.

These enemies are Communists, fellow travelers, and deluded left wingers. Communists and fellow travelers want Hoover bounced because he interferes with their subversive activities, plants spies in their treason cells, and enables the government from time to time to send them to jail.

Krupp Head Weds American-Born

Berchtesgaden, Germany, May 20 (AP)—Germany's once-mighty munitions magnate, Alfred Krupp, married a German-born American socialite last night at his mountain resort where Hitler used to relax.

The bride, Martha Vera Wilhelm Knauer of Hollywood, Calif., wore a street-length white dress and a white veil. It was the second marriage for the 44-year-old Krupp. His first ended in divorce.

Former ski star Fred Stoll and his wife acted as witnesses. Stoll later told reporters Krupp's bride left Germany in 1938 and became an American citizen. He said the couple had known each other for many years.

500 HP Motor May Rush 'Push' Plants

Cleveland, May 20 (AP)—A 500-horsepower electric motor which can shift forward to reverse in eight tenths of a second may speed the coming to push button factories.

The motor was hailed as "the beginning of the power for the automatic factory" yesterday by Reliance Electric & Manufacturing which developed it.

An electronic control can stop the big motor in three revolutions and send it spinning in the opposite direction. It is this feature that puts the motor high in plans for factories which would have a minimum of machinery and a maximum of workers.

Reliance already has sold three of the motors, two for punch presses and one for a high-speed red mill cutoff. Each cost about $50,000.

DOROTHY DIX

Go Home First

Dear Miss Dix: I'm a young girl of 20, who came to a big city from a small town. Before leaving home, I became engaged to a boy who was a family friend. It was one of these things that started in childhood. He has a good bit of money and we have everything in common.

Through my job here, I met a young salesman whom I dated once in a while. As the weeks went by we discovered we were in love. We try to overlook certain conflicts in our relationship. We are, for instance, of different religions. He has no money saved at all for the future. In fact, he just lives from payday to payday.

I would never have the security with him that I would with the one back home, but I can't give him up because I love him very much. What shall I do about the boy back home? He doesn't know about the one I've met up here.

McConnell Named Truce Delegate

Tokyo, May 20 (AP)—Brig. Gen. Frank C. McConnell, assistant commander of the U. S. 25th Infantry Division, today was named to the U. N. armistice delegation in Korea.

McConnell takes the place of Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, who leaves June 9 to become superintendent of the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Joy's place as head of the five-man U. N. delegation goes to Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison, who has been a delegate since January.

QUAKE IN JAPAN

of the individual, which are the foundation stones of free government, yet, at the same time, to protect the security of the nation." In 20 pages Hoover states his philosophy of liberty, the law, and the enforcement thereof. The booklet is recommended reading for everybody—especially those opponents who have listened to the phony walls of the Communist Party line.

ing to a big city and being somewhat homesick, you have fallen for a handsome stranger and are nistaking comradeship for love? I hope so, because my sympathy is all with the boy back home. If you went home, I think you'd find visions of your gallant salesman fading, and your childhood sweetheart, speedily regaining his displaced spot in your heart.

Religious Difference Important
Common sense is all on his side, too. The religious difference existing between you and your present beau will create a decided difficulty if you marry. Also he apparently is not as careful of money as he could be—though very few young people can save much with today's inflated prices.

Why not go home for awhile and see how your heart reacts to the small town boy?

Of course, if you are completely and absolutely convinced that you are indisputably in love with the salesman, the only honest thing to do is tell your erstwhile sweetheart at once. I do, however, urge you to go home, and make sure where your love lies.

Dear Miss Dix: I am heartily ashamed for the mess I've gotten into, and hope you can suggest some way out for me. I was married to a fine man who provided a good income and gave me everything I wanted. Then I fell in love with someone else, and eventually asked for a divorce, which was granted. Now the other man acts as if he didn't care for me and I doubt if he will keep his promise of marriage. Do you think there is any chance for me to be happy?

APA

Answer: The trouble with you, my dear, is that "being happy" has always been your one and only aim in life. You have followed that will-o-the-wisp wherever it becomes. There is no easy path to happiness, we get what we earn. Have you ever considered the well-being of someone else? Your treatment of your husband was shameful, and that another man should mete out the same heartbreak to you is nothing short of poetic justice.

You will find happiness in this world when you decide to be less self-centered and consider others for a change.

Dear Miss Dix: I'd like to know what I can do for a young man who has been very nice to me. He goes to a church social every Monday evening, and will always drive me there when I want to go. On week ends he goes to his home town a few miles away. My sister lives in the same town and if I want to visit her he is always glad to take me. These trips save me quite a bit of bus fare, so I feel I should offer to pay him.

MARGARET L.

Answer: Cynics to the contrary, there are lots of people in the world who are only too happy to do favors for others with no thought of financial gain. Your friend is probably one of these. You might suggest paying half the gas when he takes you to your sister's. Be sure he wants to take you when you ask, and try not to overtax his kindness by making too many requests for transportation.

1-Run Games Feature Texas Loop Play

Dallas, May 20 (AP)—The Texas League added four more one-run games last night in six games played to a season that's already accounting for about a third of its decisions by single tallies. Of 152 games thus far, 48 were settled by the minimum difference.

Against Shreveport, Beaumont used a 2-2 victory in the first game and a 6-2 win in the nightcap to strengthen its hold on the league lead by two and a half games.

Manager Joe Schultz proved a little nervous as his team took two one-run losses at Dallas hands, 1-0 in the seventh-inning game and 6-5 in the final Schultz got riled at an umpire's decision and was banished from the park.

El Worth, winner of only three by one run remained in second place although Oklahoma City slipped into 10th such defeat on the Coast.

San Antonio was issued nine walks and six errors by third place Houston and the Missions took advantage to the tune of 11-7. Jerry Witte, Houston first sacker, blasted his ninth home run in the ninth with two mates aboard.

Dallas was especially rough last night. In the opening game, Hal Erickson put the Texans down on one hit, then saw Teammate Harry Schertling's double provide the game's only run in the seventh.

Dallas left 12 stranded in the second game and had to score three tallies in the bottom of the eighth to win.

Russ Huns homered and drove in three runs as Oklahoma City edged Ft. Worth.

Portland, Ore. — Harry Matthews, 155-1-2, Seattle, Wash., out-pitched Rex Layne, 188-7, Lewis-ton, Utah (10).

San Francisco — Archie Moore, 153-1-1, knocked out Bob Dill, 180-1-1, Oakland, Calif. (6).

Providence, R. I. — Weltewright Champion Kid Gavilan, 153-1-2, Celia, outpunched Ralph Zannelli, 147-3-4, Providence non-title (10).

Halley, Weather Team in CS Loop
By The Associated Press
Bill Halley and the weather supplied the knockout blows in the Cotton States League last night.

Halley, a young right-handed pitcher reared within 20 miles of Monroe, La., journeyed to Monroe with the Greenwood Dodgers. Halley limited Monroe to three hits in winning a 2-0 shutout.

The weather forced postponement of the other three games, Greenwood at El Dorado, Meridian at Hot Springs.

Greenwood scored in the first inning. Lou Polubicki walked and then singled home by John Tidwell and in the fifth when Polubicki tripled home Dick Shippe. Losing Pitcher Gene Bowden, who got two of the three hits off Halley, allowed nine safeties.

He was working on a bridge project of the Santa Fe Railroad when the boom of a crane collapsed and crushed him.

Garcia Gives Up Hits But Few Runs

Cleveland, May 20 (AP)—Opposing batters have been getting more safe hits off Mike Garcia than any other Cleveland Indian hurler, but Garcia has the best earned-run average in the major leagues.

The answer to that paradox is that the hits against Mike seldom are for extra bases and seldom pay off in runs.

The 28-year-old right-hander has allowed 65 hits in 63 innings, but his earned-run average is an even one. He has five victories, two losses and six complete games in seven starts. In one of his losses the Tribe was shut out, 10-0.

Sunday, Garcia beat Philadelphia 6-0 for his fourth straight triumph and first shutout. It was a typical illustration of how Garcia yields hits, but not runs.

The Athletics rapped nine hits, but all were singles. They got only one base on balls, and they left 10 men stranded.

Tracy's big four who's not been tagged for a homer so far this season. Early Wynn's been belted for six, Bob Feller for five, and Bob Lemon for four. Five two-baggers make up the extra-base blow total against Garcia.

The singles don't seem to bother the hulking, 200-pound fastballer. "Guess I bear down just a little harder with men on base," he says. Garcia relies mainly on his fast ball in the tough spots, and his control is good. In his last four victories, all complete games, he has given exactly three bases on balls—one each in three games, and none in his May 11 victory over St. Louis.

Mike says he tries "to work along with the batter's weakness, but in the tough spots I put it down the middle with all I've got."

Memphis Trying to Find Combination

By STERLING SLAPPEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
After one of Luke Appling's recent and justified requests for player help to shore up his sagging Memphis Chicks, a shortstop named Sam Meeks showed up.

Meeks came from Baltimore to "plug up a leak in the Memphis infield," as the boys say.

Last night Meeks took his place at short and if his performance is indicative Manager Appling had better tune up again and holler for help some more.

Meeks made three big, fat errors. Atlanta won the game, as you might expect, 12-6. Memphis infielders chipped in four more errors to make Atlanta's victory practically effortless. The defeat was Memphis' 28th.

Another refugee from Baltimore, Don Hotelston, tried his pitching arm for Memphis, but gave nine hits before the seventh.

Atlanta Pitcher Carlton Willey hit his first homer and added a double to knock in five runs. He was tagged 40 in 74 innings.

The only other game in the Southern Association went to Nashville 7-1 over New Orleans.

Every Vol player got at least one hit off New Orleans Pitcher Ed Wolfe. Nashville had on the mound Dick Libby. In from Minneapolis only last Saturday. The game was fast and Floyd Flogg added a homer for New Orleans' only run.

Says Fulbright Bill Backed by Big Business

Washington, May 20 (AP) — CIO Secretary-Treasurer James B. Carey charged yesterday that a bill before the Senate Banking committee, sponsored by Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) is backed by "big business."

Fulbright's bill would make changes in the Walsh-Healey Act, which concerns wages and working conditions in plants under government contracts.

Specifically naming the Westinghouse Electric Corporation in his argument to the Banking committee, Carey said that "big business" desires to hold down southern wages. Shortly before Carey testified, the committee voted 7-6 against turning the bill over to the Senate Labor committee.

Under present law, the Secretary of Labor can require that contractors on government jobs pay wages equal to the prevailing wage for that type of work in the locality.

Fulbright's bill would require that the labor department interpret the word "locality" to mean the community in which a plant is located rather than on the national or regional level.

Carey quoted from a letter he said was written by Ralph Stuart, a Westinghouse vice president, which he said threatened curtailment of Westinghouse expansion in the South unless the company is permitted to establish a wage structure in its southern plants lower than its northern plant wages.

Youth Dead in Chasm When Rescuers find

Spirit Lake, Wash., May 20 (AP) — Rescuers paused on a mountain path last night as a grief-stricken clergyman intoned the last rites of the church over the body of his son who died in an icy crevasse high on Mt. St. Helens.

The youth, 20-year-old Arthur Jessett, slipped into the narrow chasm at the mountain's 8,000-foot level while on climbing trip with three companions Sunday.

He lived a number of hours talking to his companions as the slipping ice eased him deeper and deeper into the crevasse. Meanwhile, climbers fought frantically to rescue him.

Later yesterday, expert mountain climbers were lowered 75 feet into the frigid tomb and recovered the young University of Washington student's body.

The father, the Rev. Thomas E. Jessett, met the somber party as it descended through fog and rain to this mountain lake in Southwest Washington.

He opened the Episcopal Book of Common Prayer and read in a strained voice:

"Into thy hands, O merciful Savior, we commend the soul of this thy servant, now departed from the body."

Then the father dropped to his knees, faced the sky and cried: "My son! My son. My son!"

He rose and shook hands with each of the eight ski patrolmen who had recovered the body.

Two of the rescuers, Jim and Louis Whitaker, twin brothers from Seattle, had been lowered by ropes into the crevasse. They said the body was wedged tightly between the walls of ice.

They cut the ice away and the body was raised by ropes.

Dr. Otto Trott, who was with the ski patrol party, said the boy had been dead about 12 hours. He died of exposure.

Young Jessett apparently had been able to break his fall only 35 feet beneath the surface snow. But he had the only rope in the student party with him, making immediate rescue impossible. As his companions desperately sought aid, he sank lower and lower.

AFL-CIO Start Annual Battle

Boston, May 20 (AP) — A CIO-AFL battle for members was under way today as George Baldanzi, former CIO official who bolted to the AFL, announced his organization will throw all its resources into a drive to organize Southern textile workers.

Baldanzi, former vice president of the CIO Textile Workers Union, switched to the AFL United Textile Workers yesterday and said he hopes to bring 100,000 CIO members into the AFL fold.

The switch by Baldanzi stemmed from a recent convention battle in Cleveland, where Emil Rieve defeated him for the presidency of the CIO-TWU. That culminated a long dispute between Baldanzi and Rieve over executive and organizational matters.

Baldanzi, appointed AFL union's director of the national textile organization, said that 53,000 already have shifted from the CIO to the AFL in New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Connecticut, the Carolinas and Virginia.

Rieve said that his union has contracts with various mills and that even if workers secede, the union intends to stick by its agreements.

CARDUI MONTHLY CHANGES OF LIFE

No Change in Cigarette Price in State

Little Rock, May 20 (AP) — The Office of Price Stabilization says Arkansas smokers are not to get a price reduction on cigarettes.

The revised order, released yesterday, said that Arkansas cigarette dealers may continue to use prices fixed by the state's so-called fair trade law.

A former OPS decision last February, which would have reduced cigarette prices by two or three cents per package, called for a nationwide roll-back of the prices to June, 1950 levels — state laws notwithstanding.

An Arkansas state law—the Cigarette Sales Act of 1951—pegged cigarette prices at 6 per cent above the basic cost to retailers.

The revised OPS order said it would allow Arkansas dealers to sell at the state's minimum because: (1) It would have no substantial inflationary effect; (2) the law was not passed in an attempt to evade price controls, and (3) the commodity is peculiarly subject to "loss-leader" merchandising.

The order also said that similar adjustments would be made in other states "if the three circumstances, found to characterize the Arkansas situation, exist."

Although the Mississippi River basin is not in an earthquake belt, there have been several earthquakes in the area during the past 150 years.

... Mrs. Tillar Wrote From Pride

Mrs. Bertha T. Tillar believes in practicing what she teaches. So when 67 of her pupils entered Lion Oil essay contests, she entered, too, and set a winning example.

For Mrs. Tillar feels that teachers "must plant precious seeds that develop boys and girls into well-rounded, self-supporting citizens." And she writes of the need... "to stimulate minds... radiate moral, physical and mental values that fit pupils for life."

In 90 tragic days in 1931, Bertha Tillar lost husband, father, and home; and she started teaching to "hold home and family together." She calls the Lion Oil Fund "the most inspiring plan I have ever seen," and plans to use her $1200-award to obtain a Master's Degree in Creative Writing so that she may go ahead with a history of Desha County, Ark., a project she has planned for years.

Mrs. Long Wanted More.....

Latin-teacher Sara Liston Long, $1200-award winner from Decatur (Ala.) High School, wanted more education. And so she entered the Lion Oil Teacher-Essay Contest to win! And win she did! With words like these: "teach determination to win, refusal to accept defeat. Help pupils see how others have wrested success and happiness from seemingly impossible circumstances." And thoughts like these: "Give pupils social responsibility... help them translate into their lives—Trust in God and keep your powder dry."

Daughter of a minister, wife of a Judge, and sister of a college president, Mrs. Long teaches so that her sons may obtain the education she believes is the American heritage. "Wonderful for furthering educational opportunity for teachers and students," is the way she described the Lion Oil Plan that will let her get a Master's Degree.

Walter Haun, executive representing Lion Oil Scholarship Fund, presents Biology-teacher Gertrude Buckhalter of Piney Woods (Miss.) High School with her $1200-award. School Head Dr. Zilpha E. Chandler looks on.

The 2nd Lion Oil Teacher-Essay Contest was judged by the following staff members of Mississippi State College: Dr. Fred T. Mitchell, President; Drs. Herbert Drennon and Robert Holland; both of the English Department. The essay topic was, "How I Can Best Prepare My Students For The Future."
